

Diamonds in Canada Symposium 2019

SCRAPBOOK | Highlights from the second annual event in Toronto

In June The Northern Miner and its sister publication, Diamonds in Canada, hosted the second annual Diamonds in Canada Symposium at the TMX Broadcast Centre in Toronto. The event brings together investors and industry players interested in diamond exploration and mining.

Attendees at this year's event heard from four featured speakers: Reena Ahluwalia, jewellery designer, artist and professor; Leon Daniels, president and CEO of Pangolin Diamonds; Chris Jennings, director of North Arrow Minerals; and Paul Zimmisky, independent diamond analyst and consultant. TNM

PHOTO CAPTIONS

1 Mark Shimell (at podium), project manager, Star Diamond. 2 John Cumming (L) editor-in-chief, The Northern Miner, interviews Leon Daniels, president and CEO, Pangolin Diamonds. 3 Miles Welch, manager of diamond secondary industry development, Government of Northwest Territories. 4 Reena Ahluwalia, jewellery designer, artist and professor. 5 Alisha Hiyate (L), editor, Diamonds in Canada, interviews Chris Jennings, director, North Arrow Minerals. 6 Ken Armstrong, president and CEO, North Arrow Minerals. 7 Paul Zimmisky, independent diamond analyst and consultant. PHOTOS BY GEORGE MATTHEW PHOTOGRAPHY

